Turn Your Matchmaking Skills Into a Full-Time or Part-Time Business

You've successfully set up your friends with their perfect partners and have become the "go-to" person when someone is looking for a new relationship. That may just seem like a fun way to help those you love, but it might be a great career opportunity, too. Don't just play matchmaker...really become one! It's simple, with this professional course created by the authorities at the Matchmaking Institute. This practical guide walks you through the history of matchmaking and the basics of starting your own business. It offers advice from the experts on how to become a certified matchmaker, sign clients, conduct interviews, answer a candidate's tough questions, make a match, and how to market your business. So, don't wait until the next time someone says, "You should do this for a living." The time to make a move is now.

THE MATCHMAKING INSTITUTE is dedicated to introducing singles to certified and professional matchmakers in a confidential, safe, and secure manner, and to training those who wish to become certified matchmakers following a strict code of ethics and standards. LISA CLAMPITT is executive director of THE MATCHMAKING INSTITUTE.
